

Dressage Riding Clinic hosting :

JAIMEY IRWIN

Jaimey began riding at the young age of 6. After competing in the eventing in the early age and being short listed for the Canadian team, Jaimey went to Germany to have an extensive training with Holger Münstermann, Christilot Boylen and Udo Lange. In 2002 he took a position as the Head rider in Luzern, Switzerland.

Jaimey represented Canada in many CDI's up to Grand Prix level throughout Canada and the USA with many top placings, every year being either short or long listed for the Canadian team.

Jaimey's achievements:

Represented Canada at the prestigious North American Young Riders Championships in Chicago in 1999, where he just missed out on the bronze medal, finishing fourth overall. Jaimey was the highest placing Canadian.

in 2003, short listed with Jacardo at the Advanced Level with many wins in 2004, long listed at the GP level and declared for the Athens Olympics in 2005 and 2006, long listed with Nero at the Advanced Level

in 2008, the Ontario GP Champion with Dover long listed with Dover at the GP level and with White Socks at the Advanced Level declared for the 2008 Beijing Olympics with Dover

in 2009 and 2010, long listed with Dover at the GP level with scores up to 69%

in 2011, short listed with Dover at the GP level qualified for the Pan American Games in Mexico on Winston with the highest Canadian average score Jaimey has brought numerous horses up to the FEI level that have competed successfully, and he continues to achieve success with many different horses on the highly competitive Florida show circuit and throughout Canada. He also teaches many students, from all levels, who have achieved much success, and teaches clinics in Barbados, Vancouver BC, and throughout Ontario. Jaimey coaches both his wife Tina and her mother Ute Busse, who are both competing successfully at the Grand Prix level and are listed for 2011, Tina is on the Canadian team for the Pan American Games.

Jaimey will have his riding cloths and can get on a horse if needed and asked.
